

Alumni Days 2004

More than 40 alumni came back to TC last October to celebrate Alumni Days 2004. Special thanks go to retired auxiliary bishop Most Rev. William C. Newman '54, from the Archdiocese of Baltimore, who joined us on the occasion of his 50-year reunion and served as the celebrant at the reunion Mass on Wednesday, Oct. 6. He was joined by Baltimore's newly ordained auxiliary bishop, Most Rev. Mitchell T. Rozanski '84, who preached the homily at the Mass. Later that evening, Rev. Stephen J. Rossetti '84, president and CEO of the St. Luke Institute in Silver Spring, Md., received the 2004 Alumnus Lifetime Service Award at the awards dinner and ceremony. Along with many classmates, several friends of Father Rossetti and members of the board of directors of the St. Luke Institute were on hand to hear the presentation of this year's award. Earlier in the day, he was the featured speaker at a morning session on "Living Healthy as a Priest." His presentation covered a recent study on priests' attitudes and behaviors in several key areas including the mental and spiritual well-being of priests today. Overall the study conveyed a strong sense of personal contentment and happiness among priests at the present time.

Father Hurst and 2004 Alumnus Lifetime Service Award winner Rev. Stephen J. Rossetti '84.

A photo gallery of alumni and friends attending Alumni Days 2004 at TC appears on pages 6 and 7. Reunion classes celebrating in 2004 included: the classes of '44, '49, '54, '59, '64, '69, '74, '79, '84, '89, '94 and '99.

Members of the Class of 1984, celebrating their 20th year reunion from TC, gathered after Mass on the steps of TC for a class photo. Pictured l-r, they are: Auxiliary Bishop Mitchell T. Rozanski, TC Alumni Board chair; Father Roger J. Scheckel; Father Stephen J. Rossetti; Father James Turner and Father John A. Abe.

Other Alumni Days guests pictured outside the chapel after Mass include, l-r: Thienan Tran, TC seminarian (4T); Mr. Thomas Hinsberg '54; Bishop Thomas J. Costello '54; Father L. Eugene Giblin '44 and Father Stephen J. Rossetti '84.

